Batman vs Superman

Various authors and illustrators

9781401256982, $9.99

DC Comics

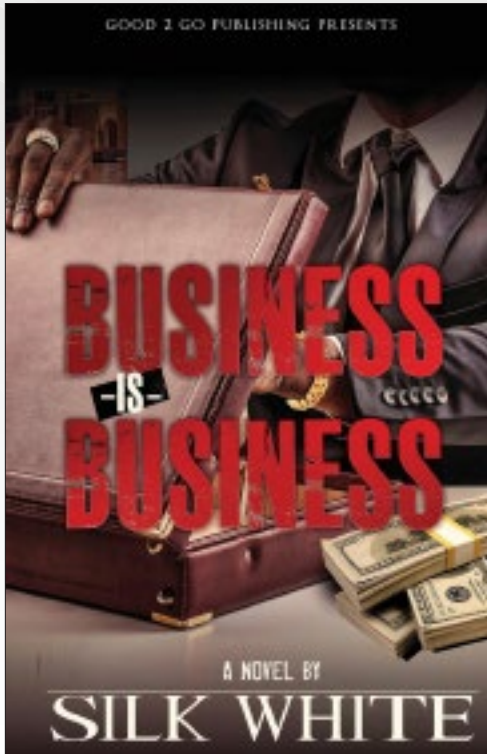

This is an anthology of all the stories in which Batman and Superman went head to head against one another. It's the ultimate battle of brains vs. brawn and tackles the question: Who would win—Batman or Superman? Includes stories from Frank Miller, Geoff Johns, Jim Lee, Scott Snyder, and many others. The Batman vs Superman movie will be released in spring 2016, and this book is a great lead-up to the film, though it is not a tie-in.

SPACE CAR FOR THE RED WORLD

We sent this car to the red world near Earth so it could drive around and look at stuff for us. It's helping us figure out whether that world ever had seas, and whether those seas could have had life in them.

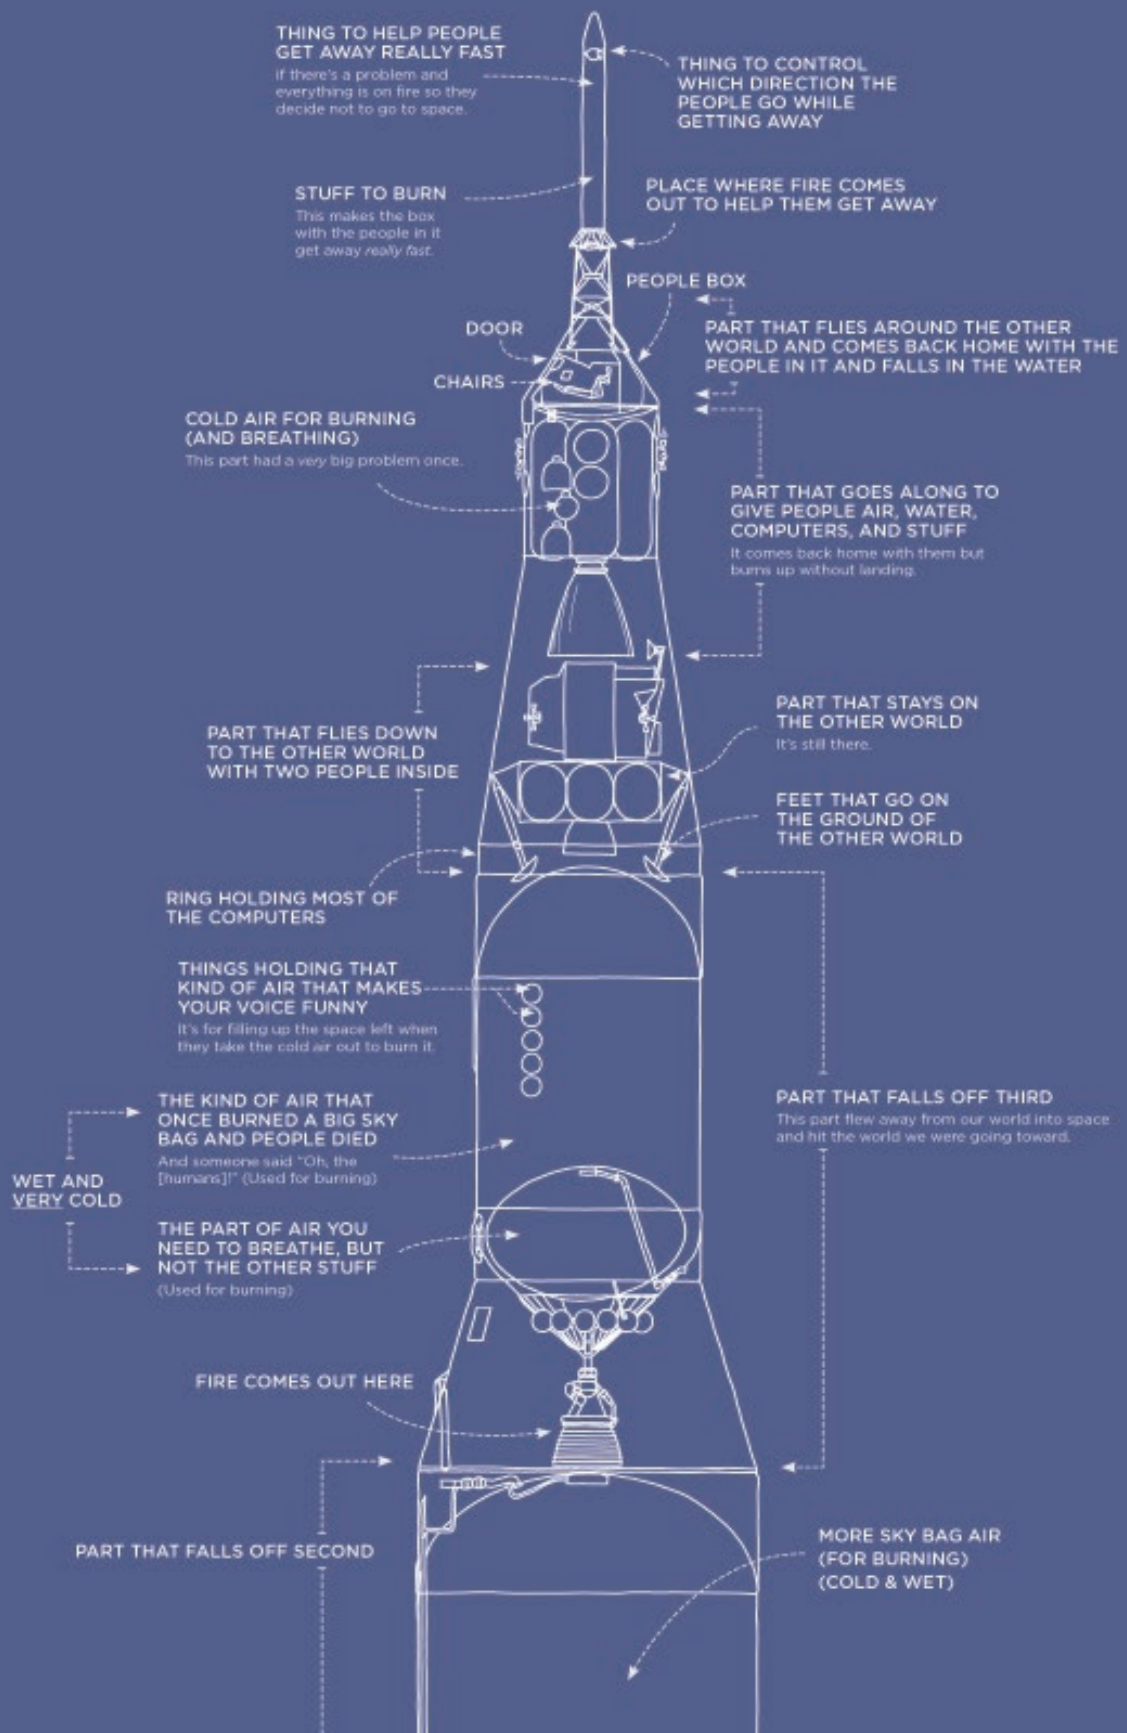

US SPACE TEAM'S UP GOER FIVE

This is the only space boat that's landed people on another world. People landed on the Moon with it six times, all about half a hundred years before this book was written.

After those visits to the Moon, we stopped using this space boat to go to other worlds. The US Space Team used the boat, one last time, to send up their first space house.

After people visited the house a few times, it fell back down. Pieces of it landed in a small town. The town told the US Space Team to pay a fine for dropping stuff on the ground.

THING THAT BRINGS IN COLD WET AIR TO BURN

MORE OF THE KIND OF AIR WE BREATHE (FOR BURNING) (COLD & WET)

FIRE COMES OUT HERE

MORE OF THE KIND OF AIR WE BREATHE (FOR BURNING) (COLD & WET)

MORE FUNNY-VOICE AIR (for filling up space)

PART THAT FALLS OFF FIRST

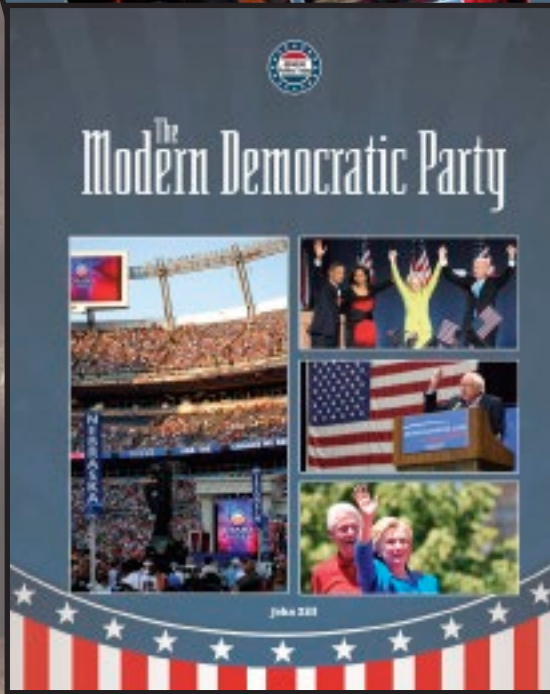

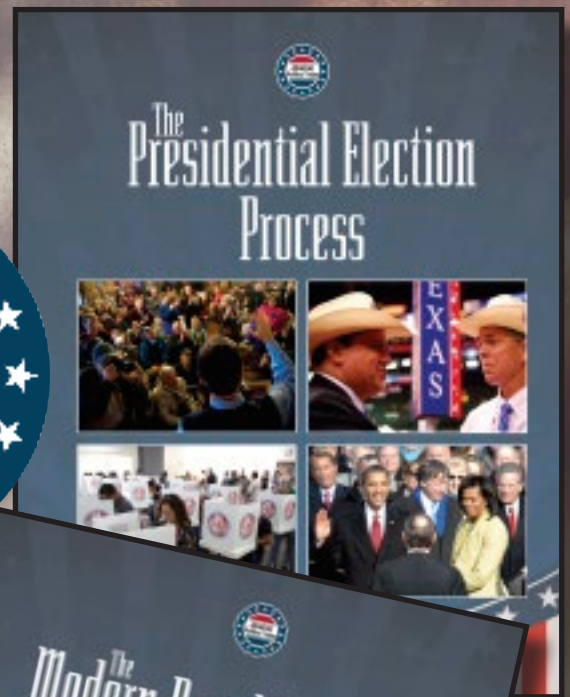

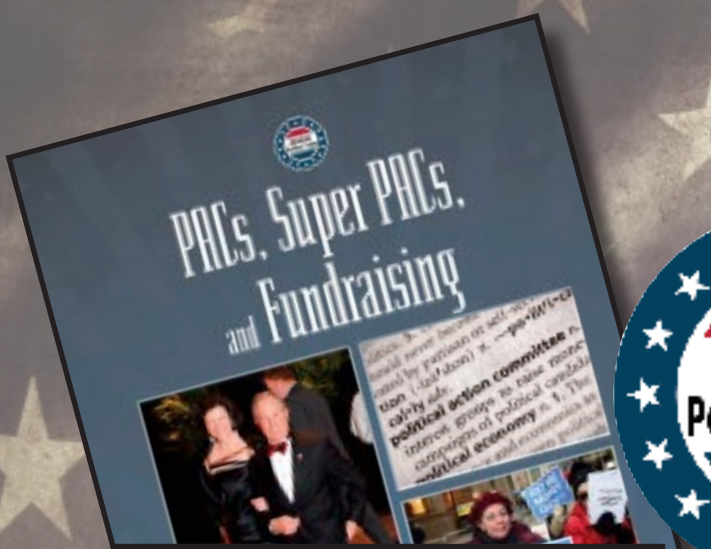

OPENING FOR PUTTING IN COLD WET AIR

THIS IS FULL OF THAT STUFF THEY BURNED IN LIGHTS BEFORE HOUSES HAD POWER
It goes together with the cold air when it's time to start going up.

LOTS OF FIRE COMES OUT HERE

THIS END SHOULD POINT TOWARD THE GROUND IF YOU WANT TO GO TO SPACE.

IF IT STARTS POINTING TOWARD SPACE YOU ARE HAVING A BAD PROBLEM, AND YOU WILL NOT GO TO SPACE TODAY.

A HIGH-STAKES, HARD-CHARGING POLITICAL THRILLER

"A novel as significant as it is engrossing."

—Booklist, starred review

The state of U.S. race relations in 1968 and 2008 is seen through the eyes of two veteran Chicago newsmen—one black and one white—in this high-stakes, hard-charging political thriller from Pulitzer Prize-winning columnist Pitts.

America: Nation of the Goddess

The Venus Families and the Founding of the United States

ALAN BUTLER and
JANET WOLTER
Foreword by
Scott F. Wolter

This book reveals how a secret cabal of influential "Venus" families, working through the Freemasons and later the Grange, planned the American Revolution and set the stage for the layout of Washington, D.C. according to the principles of sacred geometry, with an eye toward establishing the New Jerusalem. It concludes with the startling revelation that nearly every city in America has a temple to the Goddess hidden in plain sight—their baseball diamonds—exposing the extent of the 'Venus families' influence.

“From a Pediatrician’s perspective, this is a sigh of welcome relief for sleepless, weary parents.”

—DR. DAVID BLANK, M.D.
Longmont, CO

“As a Pediatrician, I cannot argue with the success of On Becoming Babywise. It is such a practical approach to parenting. That is why I made these principles a priority of discussion in every well-child care visit.”

—DR. JANET DUNN, M.D.
Chatsworth, CA

“As an obstetrician and a mother, my concern for a healthy outcome continues beyond the moment of delivery. Because the principles of On Becoming Babywise are so effective, I consider it part of my extended health care of the family.”

—DR. SHARON NELSON, M.D.
Glendale, CA

“Babywise provides sound parenting advice and common sense pediatric care to many parents who are confused, frustrated, and down right sleep deprived. Simply put, it works!”

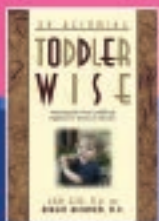

—DR. DAVID M. MILLER, M.D.
Superior, CO

“As family physicians and a husband-wife team, we are often asked questions related to parenting and the general care of children. Most of our basic responses are found in On Becoming Babywise. When the principles are put into practice, parents reap abundant rewards.”

Camille Scheel

ISBN: 978-1-59298-850-1, pb, 302 pp, $18

Beaver's Pond Press

Young, vibrant, and very much alive, Camille Scheel shares her true tale of living with uncertainty. Through journalistic updates dubbed “Postcards from Camp Chemo,” Scheel communicates her unfiltered hopes, struggles, and successes in the face of what many people fear most. With astounding fortitude and grit, and often with a surprising sense of humor, Scheel shows us that light shines in even the darkest of hours if only we know where to look. Written with tenderness and wisdom, Camp Chemo presents insights for anyone—with or without cancer.

THINK RELIGIOUS FAITH IS DYING? THINK AGAIN

Bestselling author and acclaimed scholar of religion RODNEY STARK explodes the myth that the world is growing more secular.

In fact, the world is more religious than ever before, and Stark has the numbers to prove it.

THE TRIUMPH OF FAITH tells the untold story of a global religious awakening—and reveals why everyone gets the story wrong.

Rodney Stark is the Pulitzer Prize–nominated author of How the West Won, The Victory of Reason, The Rise of Christianity, God's Battalions, and many other books. He serves as Distinguished Professor of the Social Sciences at Baylor University, where he is codirector of the Institute for Studies of Religion.

THE GOOD TIMES ROLLED BLACK NEW ORLEANS 1978-1982

Bernard Hermann

The Good Times Rolled is from the French phrase “laissez les bons temps rouler,” which symbolizes the spirit of the city of New Orleans. Festive and flamboyant, the legendary Crescent City is a cauldron in which the spicy flavors of many different cultures and races have blended for nearly three centuries. Bernard Hermann’s images capture the unique intensity of New Orleans’s African American community and in doing so reveal the true soul of this exotic American city.

ARTIST SPACES NEW ORLEANS

Tina Freeman

Few artists have the luxury of separate work and living spaces, thus work and life often end up compressed into a singular personal environment. With more than one hundred extraordinary photos by Tina Freeman and a dozen artist interviews by Morgan Molthrop, Artist Spaces, New Orleans provides a comprehensive portrait of the city’s artists and their relationship to space.

NEW ORLEANS LIFE AND DEATH IN THE BIG EASY

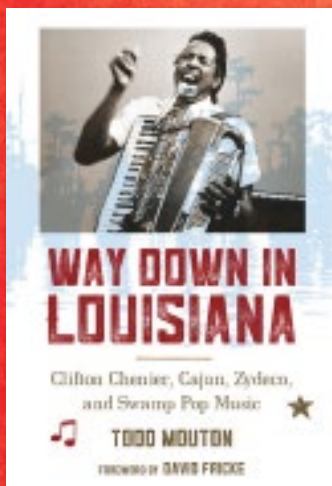

Cheryl Gerber

New Orleans: Life and Death in the Big Easy uses photo juxtaposition to portray New Orleans culture—its contrasts, dichotomies, and social ironies, the things that make the city so richly diverse and distinctive—as seen through the lens of photojournalist Cheryl Gerber. New Orleans: Life and Death in the Big Easy is a visual insider’s tour of modern New Orleans and its people.

WAY DOWN IN LOUISIANA CLIFTON CHENIER, CAJUN, ZYDECO, AND SWAMP POP MUSIC

Todd Mouton

This book is about the mysteries of soul—and the magic born when you make music from your heart. With Clifton Chenier’s amazing life and career as the centerpiece, this collection of profiles gathered across two decades unites some of the world’s most innovative creative forces. David Fricke says “Way Down in Louisiana is as dynamic as the records and performances Mouton describes . . . a rare immersion in the personal lives of the working musicians in this singular America.”

CATAHOULA LOUISIANA STATE DOG

John Slaughter

Intrigued by their striking visual appearance—they are usually multi-colored and often have different color eyes—John Slaughter has been photographing Catahoula dogs for over twenty-five years. Native to Louisiana, these dogs are iconic symbols of the uniqueness of the Pelican State. In nearly one hundred photographs, Slaughter captures the beauty of this curious breed.

THE IRISH IN NEW ORLEANS

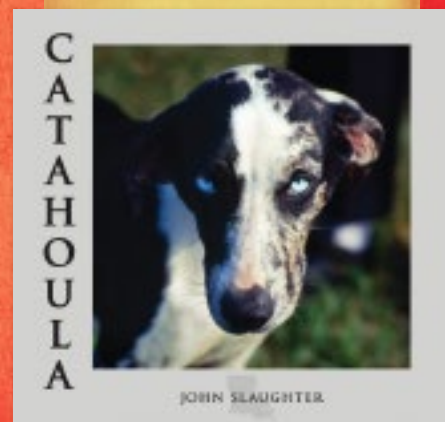

Laura D. Kelley

A colorful, entertaining, and often adventurous history of the Irish in New Orleans. From “Bloody” O’Reilly in the eighteenth century to the Irish-dominated politics of the twentieth century, with chapters on Irish wakes and funerary practices, the city’s great churches and charitable organizations, Irish dance, music, sports, and pubs, the author introduces the reader to a hitherto untold story of one of America’s most historical cities.
